AN ACT

6

7 Relating to education; revising teacher evaluations parents and student evaluations and
8 omitting teacher attendance from such as well. Teacher evaluations will solely be based on 9 classroom observations (80%) and student test scores (20%). Classroom observations can be 10 carried out by school principal or by appointed district evaluator. Student test scores are 11 directly recorded to the teacher who is the full time teacher to that student, not to their 12 appointed grade level.

13

14 SECTION 1. PERMITS

15 Permits obtained from NM teacher evaluations for the purpose of setting up a more effective
16 evaluation system.

17

18 SECTION 2. APPROPRIATION

19 The state would not have to appropriate funds, it would gain money from not using programs
20 to undergo student evaluations.
