

Principal author: Kiana Etsate
Bill:

An Act

Due to vast amounts of animal negligence, I propose a "No animal left behind" Act to stricken the felony policies on animal abuse and negligence. Charges will include time in prison and also a felony charge on record for the convicted criminal(s). There will be a brighter and better future for the animals in the state of New Mexico.

Be it enacted by the American legion auxiliary girls state 2015 that:
No animal shall be neglected or abused in the state of New Mexico.

Section 1: Short title: "No animal left Behind"

Section 2: definitions: as used in the "No animal left behind"

- a. Animals will be treated humanely by their owners and across the state

Section 3: provisions: - this program will be monitored by the State of New Mexico Humane society and Fish and game wildlife

- a. Animals will not be endangered or harmed, criminals will face felony charges

Section 4: Enactment- This bill should go into effect 30 days after passage.